PROFILE

Multidisciplinary designer and founder with 20+ years across visual communication, brand experience, and business operations — a decade in Athens working with fashion houses, food brands, and agencies, then twelve years in Stockholm running a staffing company with an ISO 9001 and ISO 14001 certified quality management system, coordinating contracts, schedules, budgets, and people across parallel assignments. Recently completed a UX design program at Medieinstitutet Stockholm and now pivoting deliberately into UX research and product work, with a method grounded in user interviews, usability testing, clear documentation, and attention to detail. Returning home to Athens.

SELECTED WORK

Agent X — UX case study

Medieinstitutet Stockholm, 2026

Redesigning new-player onboarding for a notoriously punishing hardcore shooter. Eight player interviews, two personas, an emotional journey map, annotated wireframes, and three think-aloud usability sessions, from raw research to a validated concept for an in-world guidance companion.
